Minutes of August 12, 2021 APPROVED

CO-CHAIRMAN'S and COMMISSION MEMBERS' COMMENTS: None

PUBLIC COMMENTS: None

SENIOR CENTER UPDATES:

- Austin reports all indoor programs are open with social distancing, limited capacity, and masks.
- Vandalism to one bus and broken window on another bus has created transportation problems. Suggestion made to investigate usage of Strong House Vans which are not in use while facility is closed.
- Beginning October 11, the Town of Madison will institute a COVID Policy which will require all unvaccinated Town employees to be tested every Sunday in order to return to work on Monday. Masks are required to be worn in all Town buildings.

AFFORDABLE HOUSING:

- Heather Noblin reports the next meeting to take place on Sept. 10. Committee plans to examine final version of survey created by consultants and determine if it is appropriate for use in Madison.
- Austin reports Heather has been instrumental in the process of selling affordable housing units in Madison.

SENIOR CENTER TEN YEAR ANNIVERSARY:

- Austin reports large celebratory gatherings will be avoided due to changing COVID restrictions. Suggestions to mark the November occasion include small in-house parties with cake, decorations, newspaper coverage by Source, drive thru distribution or delivery of birthday cupcakes with Senior Center info. Lori and Wendy to meet and discuss with Austin week of Sept 13.

MEETING AJOURNED at 5:57 pm. Next ZOOM meeting on October 14, 2021 at 5:30 pm

Respectfully submitted,
Lori Murphy
